

Dear Friends and Neighbours

Hope everyone is well and keeping safe!

We have some exciting news from Brook Green Market. We are now officially open every Wednesday in addition to our Saturday slot offering a mid week market to the mix.

As schools and business slowly trickle back to normality, we have adapted to ensure our market is set up to allow everyone the chance to shop fresh during the week. We want to promote fresh market shopping as a lifestyle and not just a weekend treat. It's really important to eat produce at its freshest, so having this extra day will allow you to get the best produce all week round whether it be fresh fish, bread or fruit and veg, we have it all.

We are now open mid week every Wednesdays from 3pm- 8pm and Saturdays 9am-3pm with over 20 different traders offering huge variety to fulfill all your grocery needs.

Brook Green Market & Kitchen sells the finest organic, free range, naturally grown produce available. The weekly market also features an exciting array of London's finest street food, craft beer, wines and cocktails within an atmospheric, fun environment.

Our mission is to create a place where you can buy the best quality produce whilst feeling confident that it is of the highest quality, extend your cooking skills, try new and exotic produce and street food, interact with foodies alike or people from the community and enjoy the day by doing something different.
